

We present some of the results of online surveys conducted at the end of the youth exchange "Active citizenship" - a total of 19 participants answered the questions.

Most of them said that the exchange met their expectations by marking the highest grade "5": 42% (8 people) and "4": also 42% (8).

58% of the participants (11 of the people) considered it useful in the highest degree, while the "4" rated it as 16% (3), "3": 21% (4).

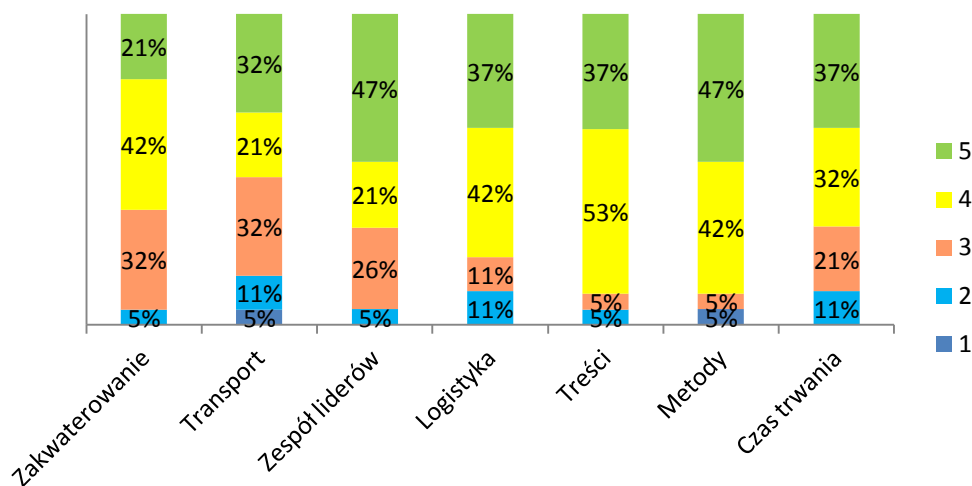

The vast majority of participants felt that it helped them to learn and mature (rating "5"): 63% (12), 21% (4) gave "4".

Please rate the following aspects of exchange about your outcomes (1 being the lowest and 5 being the highest)

From the organizational issues participants rated the highest the methods used at the meeting - the „5” and „4”: 47% (9) and 42% (8), and the team of leaders leading the meeting – „5” and „4”: 47% (9) and 21% (4). Regarding the duration of the exchange - 3 of the participants explained in the comments that they would like the exchange to last longer.

Please rate the following aspects of exchange about the organization (1 being the lowest and 5 being the highest)

The vast majority of participants all three aspects: their own participation, participation of the group and the atmosphere and relationships rated positively for the "5" or "4". 32% (6) of them on "3" rated their own participation.

Please rate the following aspects of exchange about the group and the participation (1 being the lowest and 5 being the highest)

What did the participants consider the best during the meeting? Below are some selected answers:

„Exchange was amazing, it was huge chance to learn new things, improve myself, meet amazing people! Everything was the best, an organisation, people, our team, activities, energizers... I loved it and I take participation again with pleasure.”

„New contacts, new experiences, new information about differences in the culture and positive energy!”

„Free time/evenings with very beautiful and sensible people :) - it was the best”